FINANCE AND TRADE.

OUR REVIEW of the cotton market last week reported middling cotton in New kork at 131; which on Monday fell to change were as follows: 124; but on Tuesday advanced to 12 5 16c. New Orleans quoted 12 c, but on Monday fell to 12 |c, and on Wednesday to 121 a. Liverpool quoted 6 15-16d, all the week, without change. Memphis quoted at 12 c, but fell on Tuesday to 12 5 16c, advancing again on Thurs- bales, of all of which spinners took 600 day to laie. This statement shows another week's steady market; New York advance 1 1 16z, New Orleans declined Liverpool remained unchanged; Memphis also ended the week at the same price it began it. Holiday influeners, and toward the latter part of the week less favorable telegrams from Liverpool and New York, kept the sales at a moderate number of bales, although one day 3000 bales were sold. The market throughout the week has been fine and favorable for business. The receipts at our sheds were less than two-thirds the receipts of the previous steamers, 2369; estimated per wagons ek. That but little more cotton and other sources, 300. will be picked is generally asserted, and is also said that there has been much loss from the cotton being best down by rain, and blown away by wind, and, by rail south, 362.
Vicksta g reports say, trodden down by cattle. That considerable loss has occurred appears to be admitted by the markets as received at the cotton ex-Washington bureau, as its December report allows a reduction of 2 to 4 per cent. for "difference in maturing and gathering." That report estimates the dal crop of the year at not less than 4 050 000 bales, nor more than 4,150,000. Thus is lower than the common estimate that has lately prevailed, but its publica tion does not appear to have affected prices up to this time. The price of gold was low most of the week, running to 1121, Lut it has since then remained ove 113c, but the change has,up to this time, had no appreciable affect on prices. The proportion of du ty and inferior cotton now reaching the market is very large and it is generally neglected by buyers who, however, readily take bright, clean stained cottons. We hear of many planters expressing the intention, anther reason, to employ mechanical cotton cleaners, so that they may keep their real estate at home and put their | New York futures for yesterday and the ow outlin on the market with better chances for sale. The quantity of Amer-ican real estate reduced to powder and next y packed in cotton, has had the effect of reducing the price of the lower cottons as compared relatively with the higher, an effect not encouraging to speculators of real estate in powder. The inquiry for cotton still continues to run rincipally on the higher grades, but a larger proportion of low cotton, free steady; 12:20 barely steady; 1:35 from dust, has been taken this week and easy; 2:30, easy; 3:15, weak. tusn before, and exporters have been the principal buyers. We have received at Memphis 75 000 bales of cotton more than at the same time last year, and have shipped a still larger proportion over last year at the same rate, so that our stock yet remains lower than it was at this time lest year, which shows a good condition of the cotton trade at this place. The ratio of increase of receipts at the United States, it will be observed on referring to the table below, is much larger this week than the one before it. The total United States ports receipts the last week showed an increase of 276,250 bales over those at the same time the previous year, the week before that increase was only 216,150 bales. The visible supply, it will be remarked, shows an increase of only 4900 bales over the supply of the same time the previous year, while it is 145 .-740 bales more than that of the year be-Receipts in Memphisduring the official week aggregated 14 075 bales, against

22 596 bales the province week, and 8171 bales the corresponding week last season. The total receipts since Septemer I, 1875, are 298 699 against 224 785 bales at the corresponding time last senson, showing an increase of 73,914 bales. Shipmen's during the official week azgregated 14 852 bales, against 16,239 baks the previous week, and 9131 the corresponding week last season. Total shipmen's since Septembar 1st are 236,719 th'es, against 162,397 bales the same time last year, an increase of 74,322

The stock on hand was 64,552 bales, against 65 3.9 bales last week, and 68,-219 bales at this time lest year. Sales during the week were 11,900 bales, against 9700 bales the previous week, and 10,300 bales the corresponding week last year. Of the 11,960 bales and this week, animners took 4750, exrters 5500, speculators 1650; against 4500 bales to spinners, 2500 to speculators, and 3300 to exporters the same time

FINANCIAL AFFAIRS during the week have gone on in the usual routine, which the turn of the year failed in any degree to interrupt. Money is easy, with no at 1-32 per cent. Prime mercantile papressure for loans. Exchange has been scarce all week, (specially New Orleans, to which place some currency was shipped; yesterday, however, most of the banks had a better supply all round. Rates have occasionally suffered the effects of the scarcity, so that New Orleans exchange was taken in some instances at 4 discount, and a little New York beexchange was taken in some instances at $\frac{1}{2}$ discount, and a little New York, between banks, at par. The settled rate remains undisturbed by these transient occurrences, and we still quote selling on all points at par, with an increased counter demand. Buying on New York, and the north and east generally, at $\frac{1}{2}$ discount; on New Orleans at $\frac{1}{2}$ discount.

We all wear blue noses now. The Belle Memphis left for St. Louis yesterday evening with 168 bales cotton. The Andy Johnson was due from above last night, and is probably in port this morning. Sullivan, of the Herald, has got his back hair down at us about something. What is it, Jimmy?
The Belle of Texas arrived from Arkanese at dark last night, with the biggest trip of the reason. The Iron Mountain strived after dark last night with a big lot of glass and iron for this port. She was all night discharging. Captain Joe Speers kindly remembered the APPEAL river historian last night, and we quaff the health of Old Neptune and his tribe. The spring weather of the past eight or ten days brought out the buds just in time to be gobbled up by the frosty weather which set in Sunday night. A considerable amount of cotton and cotton-seed was discharged on the levee yesterday from the local packets arriving Sunday and Jesterday. The leves is now crowded. Our advertising columns contain the cards of all the reliable packets running into and out of this port. Travelers and shippers will take due notice and govern themselves accordingly.

The weather architects have got down to their work on the winter lay-out at last. Saturday thermometers registered 66°; yesterday they reached only 37°, with a downward tendency. The Thompson Dean, en route to New Orleans, passed Vicksburg with four thousand bales of cotton, seven thousand sacks of cotton-seed, and two hundred and ten passengers-so save a telegram yesterday to Major Bradford. A New Orleans telegram last night chronicles the following: "The steam-pipe of the tug Charlie Wood exploded last night above the foct of Jackson, instantly killing George Bentel. The deceased leaves a wife and three chil-A couple of sad accidents occurred at the levee yesterday morning-the first, a colored rougtabout on the steamer St. Francis Belle, named George Williams. in stepping from the steamer to the wharfboat, missed his footing and fell into the river and was drowned. The current carried him down to the A. J. White, lying below the wharfboat, under which he passed, and sank to rise no more. Every effort was made to save the unfortunate man. The second a colored roustabout, name unknown, fell overboard from the Robert Mitchell while she was landing, and was drowned.

Vicksburg Berald, Saturday: "There is a beast of a freight-boat running between St. Louis and New Orleans, called the City of Alton, the officers of which are too economical to be happy. There is always more or less business here for any toat that lands for it, and even such an 'economical' boat as the City of Alton could get a pull at it if she wished it. Night before last she lauded at the wharf, took on several passengers and ten bales of cotton for Memphis. When the wharfmaster went aboard she declined to pay wharfage, and sooner than do so, had all the cotton rolled off the boat. Such skinflints as the Alton should be made to pay for landing here, whether they do any business or not."

Come to the Front. The Illinois suggests that all this racling talk be put an end to, and that the Idlewild name any Tuesday when both boats are in equal condition, to start from President's island and go twenty or thirty miles up the river, and let the winner wear the horns unmolested.
